Table Talk Questions

For Worship in Fellowship time or family/dinner conversations

We can be fearful people. In times where we have only our own voice in our head, we do whatever we can to avoid that talk. Foundations are the surfaces everything in a building sits upon. What foundation is being set in your life by these things? Talk about how to chisel through the bedrock of busy distractedness to lay a foundation tempered by the Master Builder.

Nothing happens by karma, luck, or chance. The Lord PUT YOU in your family, your marriage, your job. How will you respond? Think of one way in each area to draw your perspective towards the real reason those relationships exist in your world. Talk about how to bring those thoughts to action.

What is there that God cannot accomplish? Nothing. That's right, nothing. So why do we (okay, me) run from the chances God gives us to practice well the relationship-building moments in our lives? Think back a week. What relationships did you press into for Kingdom Glory, and what ones did you avoid? God's rich grace covers you! How can you press into those delayed opportunities this week?
